

Charisma – become better at talking to people

WORKSHEET 01/16

1. Before you watch the video, please look up these words in a dictionary awkward rapport struggle with radiate warmth

approachable

bloopers

unapproachable

curated

name of the game

relatable

to be acknowledged

resonate with sb

Write one example sentence for a word that feels new to you.

Please, watch the video!

https://youtu.be/Cl_bNkVzdQg?si=fifwRutMe9IbkPqSM

While watching, please complete the following:

2. Highly charismatic people rank high in these two traits:

1. _____

2. _____

3. Please write down a few sentences about each tip given by Sadia.
Do you have any thoughts on them? Note them down!

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

These are the questions we are going to discuss during our class:

- 1 Do you introduce yourself first thing after you meet someone? Why (not)?
- 2 What is it like in American culture (movies)?
- 3 What does it say about the culture? Is it egalitarian or hierarchical?
- 4 How does it make you feel when people use your name?
- 5 How can you acknowledge that you listen to someone?
- 6 Is instantly relating somebody's story with your story a good idea? Why (not)?
- 7 Conversational threading - how can it help in developing conversation?
- 8 What is the Pratfall effect? How do you feel about making mistakes? Do you strive to be perfect?
- 9 Do you/did you gossip? What is the effect of gossip on your relationship with your friends? What about office gossip? Can it have any benefits?
- 10 What is your special hobby/superpower? What is outstanding about you? Think carefully about your answer!

A thought I want to take with me
